GOALS OF THIS COURSE:

- to reinforce prior exposure to the French language through an initial review session (vocabulary learning will be especially tested)
- to further develop oral and written facility with the French language
- to expand cultural awareness
- to expose students to French websites

Distribution de votre note:

Unit Tests/Examens	(4)	40%
Interros(quizzes)	(many)	20%
Classwork(attendance/participation/homework)		20%
Final Exam		20%

Course Policies:

- * make-ups for major tests or quizzes are never possible. In case of a most serious situation (and I will evaluate each on a case by case basis), you must contact me prior to the test by email.
- * I will drop the lowest quiz grade at the end of the semester
- * 20% of your final grade depends on you. Attendance is essential as is oral participation. Of course, all homework assignments should be completed prior to coming to class. You will not be able to participate fully if you are not prepared. Grammar work (exercises in this book are self-check: use these wisely) is to be done outside of class.
- * You may take three unexcused absences. If you miss a quiz (one will be dropped)... accept the zero; if you miss a major exam without notifying me beforehand, please accept a zero. More than three absences will adversely affect your attendance/participation grade. If I assess you at an 85 overall, a 4th unexcused absence will subtract an additional 5 points from your classwork grade (ie. 80 or B-).
- * arrive in class on time in order to begin work at 8:50AM on Monday, Wednesday & Friday. Late arrivals of more than 15 minutes will be counted as an absence.
- * turn off cell phones. If your cell rings, count it as an absence.
- * participate fully in class work. A disrespectful attitude, little or no verbal response, an uncooperative interaction with others will be reflected in a lowered class participation grade.
- * A tutoring program will be made available, free of charge, to any student needing extra help in evenings. Any student who is aware of language learning problems from their past should definitely notify the appropriate office as soon as possible.

ET MAINTENANT, PARLONS FRANCAIS !!!
