Required textbook: Revista, Conversación sin barreras. 2nd Edition. Blanco, García, Aparisi. Vista Higher Learning, 2007.

Other material and electronic support: Revistas Supersite (revista.vhlcentral.com) powered by Maestro, offers an array of features for students and instructors. Supersite Features for students: Activities directly from the textbook, available with auto-grading, additional activities for expansion and more practice, all six short films for convenient viewing and assignments and important announcements. You will need to set up an account on the REVISTA Supersite, and then enroll as a registered student in your instructor's course. (see instructions pp. 10-11 of this syllabus). The student passcode is FREE with each purchase of a new student text. Supersite Features for Instructor: Full access to the student site, a gradebook and Testing Programs (password protected).

Course description: An intensive Spanish conversational practice to develop an intermediate level of proficiency. Special attention will be paid to functional communication, and expressing opinions on daily life and current issues. It is expected at the end of the semester that students will be able to:

- Describe and narrate in major time frames (present, past and future)
- Get through simple tasks or social situations
- Participate actively in conversations on concrete topics, in most informal and some formal settings
- Sustain communication by using connected discourse of paragraph length
- Be able to express their own opinions and talk about themselves
- Be able to read and understand news articles and short stories

Course procedure: Given that this is a conversation class, it is expected that students speak in Spanish as frequently as possible in class and out of the classroom. A most effective way to improve your language skills is through intensive practice on speaking and reading. Therefore, the preparation for the conversations in the classroom will require the careful reading of materials in Spanish on the issues at hand. The assigned materials from the textbook, as well as other sources from the media and the Internet, will enrich the vocabulary and stimulate some ideas for conversation. Lack of preparation will be immediately noticeable. As a rule for this class no English will be accepted. If a student cannot express an idea, he/she can paraphrase or try again in Spanish only. Dictionaries are accepted, but at no time (even in whispers) should students use English. This practice will help them find ways to express themselves in Spanish.

Besides the readings, it is expected that students speak Spanish out of class. It is recommended that students spend at least 2 hours per week out of class in conversation on issues associated with the materials under discussion in class, and with a variety of projects for the class. The best recommendation is to find a classmate to meet regularly (any fluent Spanish speaker willing to work with you is also acceptable).

Class attendance: Faithful attendance is expected, since continuous practice is needed in order to learn a language.

- Every student will be allowed to miss up to three (3) classes without losing points off their final grade (however, remember that your class participation grade will suffer beginning with the first absence, regardless of the reason for it).
- Every absence beyond three will result in a deduction of 1 point off the final grade. It is the responsibility of the student to reserve his/her 3 absences for those circumstances when missing class is unavoidable (i.e. illnesses, field trips, participation in sporting events, etc.) and to inform the professor as soon as possible about the reason for the absence.
- In case of extended absences the student should talk to Students Services or the Academic Dean who will contact the professor. Only if the Dean justifies the absences, they will be excused (and points will not be taken off).
- Remember: Requests to excuse absences at the end of the semester will not be considered. Students have the responsibility of keeping track of their own absences. No reminders will be given.
- Three (3) late arrivals to class (10 minutes or more) will be the equivalent of one absence and students will lose 1 point off their final grade. Please, be respectful to other students and the professor, late arrivals are disrupting.

Las faltas de asistencia no son excusa para no hacer el trabajo asignado. Es responsabilidad del estudiante que falta un día a clase hablar con la profesora o con otros alumnos de la clase para asegurarse que sabe lo que tiene que hacer para la siguiente clase.

Extra credit: Students who keep a personal dictionary and turn it in at the end of the semester will receive 2 extra points in their final grade.

Academic integrity: academic dishonesty, that is, cheating on exams, and plagiarism (using another person's words and passing them off as your own) is a serious offense and will be handled according to the Moravian policy on Academic Honesty (please, see the Student Hand book). Make sure you cite ALL the sources you use for your work. It is your responsibility to avoid dishonest behavior.

EVALUATION:

1. Class preparation and participation: Students are expected to come to class having prepared the readings and exercises assigned by the professor (see “Programa del curso”).

Preparation and attendance: It is essential that students come to class well prepared, having read the assigned material. Attendance and active class participation is necessary to succeed in this class. The professor will assign a daily grade for the level of preparation and participation of each student.

The daily class participation grades will be assigned as follows:

A=95 Excellent participation (the student answers questions and offers interesting comments without the need of the professor or the debate leader calling on him/her. The comments and answers show that the student has thoroughly prepared the reading and has done the necessary background research to understand the reading).

B= 85 Good participation (the student answers questions and offers interesting comments whenever the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. Sometimes, the student participates without being asked. The comments and answers show that the student has prepared the reading and has done the necessary background research to understand the reading quite well).

C=75 Fair participation (the student answers questions and offers comments only when the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. The comments and answers show that the student has prepared the reading, but has not done much necessary background research to understand the reading).

D=65 Poor participation (the student answers questions and offers very brief comments only when the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. The comments and answers show that the student has a poor preparation of the reading and has not done the necessary background research to understand it).

F=55 Lack of participation (the student does not answer questions and does not offer any comments in the class or group discussion. The lack of comments and answers, as well as incorrect answers, show that the student has not done the reading or, if he/she has done it, it has been in a careless or incomplete way).

See p. 8 “Participación – Hoja de Progreso” for more detail.

No attendance, no participation at all: When a student is not in class, he/she gets a 0 for that day regardless of the reason for that absence.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Spanish 150 students MUST attend our weekly Spanish Table or any related activities/events at least THREE TIMES during the semester (Please see p.9 CALENDARIO DE EVENTOS- Spring 2007). Your attendance to these activities will be graded as part of your participation.

More than three absences will affect the participation grade. Every absence beyond three will result in a deduction of one point off the participation grade. It is the responsibility of the student to reserve his/her 3 absences for those circumstances when missing class is unavoidable (i.e. illnesses, field trips, participation in sporting events, etc.). In case of extended absences the student should talk to Students Services or the Academic Dean who will contact the professor.

Remember: Requests to excuse absences at the end of the semester will not be considered. Students have the responsibility of keeping track of their own absences. No reminders will be given. Three (3) late arrivals to class (10 minutes or more) will be the equivalent of one absence and students will lose 1 point off their participation grade. Please, be respectful to other students and the professor, late arrivals are disrupting.*

2. Oral exams and presentations:

There will not be any written exam. The evaluation of this course will be based on oral performance. There will be one oral exam recorded on tape and one power point oral presentation in class (Pres. PP). Also, there will be one oral interview (OPI) at the end of the semester.

- The oral exam recorded on tape will concentrate, but not exclusively, on expressing opinions and developing topics orally. This exam will consist on a recorded presentation on specific topics which the student will develop as a speech. A guide will be provided by your instructor. On the designated date, students will hand in their cassette which the professor will evaluate according to the rubrics provided by your professor.
- Throughout the semester, each student will make one Power Point oral presentation (Pres. PP) in class (10-15 minutes long). The selection of each topic should be consulted with and approved by the professor at least one week in advance of the presentation date. This can be done by e-mail. A guide and rubrics will be provided by your professor.
- The final evaluation will be an Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) in which the student must demonstrate progress in his/her language skills from the beginning of the semester.

Taped oral exams and oral presentations must be handed in or done on the assigned date (see "Programa del curso"). Important note: For every late day that a taped oral exam is handed in, one letter grade will be deducted from the grade; for example, an exam due on a Monday that would receive a B if handed in on time, will automatically receive a D if handed in on Wednesday. Saturday and Sunday count as two days.*

3. Class debates: Students must actively participate in 6 class debates on the short films (cortometrajes) included in each "lección." Useful vocabulary, expressions and questions for the debates are provided in each chapter.

Electronic devices: When preparing work for a grade, you are prohibited from using electronic translation services. Electronic dictionaries, used for single word inquiries or for short idiomatic expressions are acceptable. If you are unsure about how you are using an electronic source, please contact your professor.

Nota Final: The final course grade will be calculated as follows:

Class participation ----- 35%
1 taped oral exam ----- 10%
1 Power Point presentation ----- 10%
6 class debates (5% each)----- 30%
Final OPI ----- 15%

Letter grade will be assigned as follows:

95-100 A
94-90 A-
89-87 B+
86-83 B
82-80 B-
79-77 C+
76-73 C

How to set up your REVISTA Supersite account and enroll in your instructor's course

Overview

So that you can see your assignments and due dates, receive important announcements, and communicate with your instructor and classmates, you will need to set up an account on the REVISTA Supersite, and then enroll as a registered student in your instructor's course.

Brief Instructions

1. Go to the Student Registration page. Go to:
<http://revista.vhlcentral.com/?registration>
2. Enter the Passcode printed inside your textbook.
3. Choose your username and password, and enter your contact information.
4. Find your school by selecting Colleges/Universities in Pennsylvania.
5. Select Moravian College from the list of schools.
6. From the list of available courses, select Spanish 150 taught by instructor Nilsa Lasso-vonLang, from Jan 15, 2007 to Apr 27, 2007.
7. Select the Section 1 section.

Detailed Instructions

1. If you haven't done so already, you will need to set up an account on the REVISTA Supersite. To do this, visit the Student Registration page (the link will open in a new window. Go to:
<http://revista.vhlcentral.com/?registration/>
2. Bound into the front of your new textbook is a card that has the Passcode allowing you access to the Supersite. You will need to scratch off the silver coating to view your Passcode. The Passcode is made up of six letters.
Show me
3. Type your Passcode into the text box and click the Enter button. Show me
4. You will next select a permanent, personal Username and Password. You will use the new Username and Password that you choose to log into the Supersite on all future visits. You won't use the Passcode any more.
5. If your school uses a Student ID system, enter your Student ID here, to help your instructor manage his or her course roster. If you don't have a Student ID, you can leave this field blank.

6. Make sure you enter a valid E-mail address, because your Instructor will need to be able to contact you regarding assignments, announcements, and class discussions. When you have filled out the whole form, click the Submit button.
7. After you click Submit, your Supersite account will be active, and you can use your new Username and Password to log in. However, will still need to Enroll in your Instructor's course.
8. First, find your school by selecting Pennsylvania from the list of States/Provinces, and Colleges/Universities for the type of School. Show me
9. From the list of schools on the next page, click on Moravian College. If your school has more than one campus listed, make sure you select the right one.
10. From the list of available courses, select Spanish 150 taught by instructor Nilsa Lasso-vonLang, from Jan 15, 2007 to Apr 27, 2007.
11. Select the section named "Section 1":
Location: TBA
Day(s)/Time(s): TBA
12. Finally, you will see a confirmation screen with your Username and Password, and confirmation of your course enrollment. Please make sure to print this page out or write down the information, and keep it in a place where it will be easy to refer to.
