Catalog Description: This course is the study of basic macroeconomic and microeconomic theory. It also integrates economic history and the development of economic thought. Principles of Economics emphasizes the evolving structure, functions and underlying principles of the global economy and modern economic life. (III.C.)(M4) 1 unit/4 cr. Prerequisite: Three years of secondary mathematics through college-level algebra or consent of instructor.

Course Objectives:

• To provide the student with a comprehensive introduction to the concepts and principles of macro and microeconomics as well as an introduction to economic history and the development of economic thought.

- To generate student interest in applying economic concepts and tools of analysis as part of an integrated approach to understanding current issues and problems faced by individuals, business organizations and governments.
- To integrate the subject matter of economics with the broader pursuit of a liberal arts education.
- To provide students with the opportunity to develop effective communication techniques.

Exams, Grading & Class Policies: There will be two semester exams and a final. The final exam is selectively cumulative. All exams must be taken at the scheduled time. The class grade will be computed from grades on quizzes, participation in class discussions, and short writing assignments that promote an integrative approach to current issues and economic history. Moravian College policies regarding academic honesty will be enforced. These policies are available in the College handbook. Please do not bring food to eat during class. Laptop computers and other electronic devices are also not permitted during the lecture period. Thank you.
