Text:

None required. Each student's account will be charged for a prepared art kit, which the students must bring to each class session. Teacher handouts, the course website (URL listed above) and computer research will take the place of an assigned text. It will be the student's responsibility to maintain and organize these materials in a three ring binder to be obtained for this purpose. This notebook should be large enough to retain handouts, research documents, as well as completed lesson plans.

Description:

This course is designed to familiarize the student with a variety of art media and teaching strategies that may be used later within an arts integrated classroom setting. It will give insight to comprehending a visual language in children, by using developmentally appropriate practices, which foster the connections that promote greater understanding of subject matter. There will be the development and implementation of art unit lessons that are aligned to Pennsylvania State Standards and integrated into larger units of academic required study. It will create an artful approach to teaching and thus influence life-long learning in children. Be advised that both in studio and at home assignments will be expected throughout the course time together.

Goals and Requirements:

- To become familiar and comfortable with a variety of art media and strategies to be used in the academic / arts integrated classroom. Class attendance with active participation is a must for this aspect of the program. Unexcused absences and lateness will affect your final grade. Please refer to the 2007 Art Department Attendance Guidelines Policy attached as a separate document. Come prepared to learn and develop lessons and visual examples during our class time together. TOGETHER, we all achieve more!
- To fully develop four (4) lesson unit plans that integrate the arts across the academic curriculum and are aligned to PA Standards. These plans may be turned in as completed, (suggested method) but MUST be in the instructor's hands before that last week of class. Visual examples (art work) from these assignments must be turned in as well. Suggested early due dates for each assignment will be given during our class time together.
- To present and defend one (1) of these developed unit lessons to the group at our last meeting. Exact date of the presentation will be given in class. The emailing of this lesson to each class member ahead of the presentation time will be expected. This date will also be given in class. Active participation in critiques, lesson development, and class presentations will be evaluated in everyone's final grade.
- Readings from handouts and the internet completed when assigned. Written quizzes may be periodically given.
- To support multi-disciplinary studies, projects, and events which provide the integration of the arts and ideas – heart, hands, and head – for all students at Moravian College.
- A sketchbook and class journal will be kept.
- Visual Arts Engagement Requirement: A ONE PAGE Visual Art Event Participation Paper will be due before the last week of class. The exact date will be given at our first meeting. This paper is a written reflection of a visual arts exhibit that you are required to physically attend outside of our class time together. Various locations and directions to these exhibits will be given in class, as well as any additional information needed. This assignment may not be completed through museum web sites.

- A Responsive Creative Writing Assignment: This will be based on your reaction to various works of art that we will be viewing in class, as well as, your own creations.
- Students should familiarize themselves with the Moravian College Academic Honesty Policy, as stated in the student handbook. The Internet can provide valuable source material, but you must participate by visiting the artwork yourself, in person, and offering your own viewpoint. Be aware that I am very familiar with art websites and plagiarism in any form will not be tolerated.
- Students with Learning Disabilities: If you believe you need accommodations in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Learning Services Office as soon as possible to enhance the likelihood that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. Students who wish to request accommodations in this class for a disability should contact Mr. Joe Kempfer, Assistant Director of Learning Services for Disability Support, 1307 Main Street (extension 1510). Accommodations cannot be provided until authorization is received from the office of Learning Services.
- This syllabus is subject to change and notice will be given to the students if it does.

Course Outcomes:

- The student will have gained confidence in using a variety of art materials in an academic classroom setting.
- The student will acquire insights on cross-curricular arts integration and will begin to understand the important role the arts play in providing children, with yet another voice for expressing understanding and knowledge.
- The student will have four (4) fully developed lesson unit plans, aligned to a variety of academic standards, with examples, at the end of the class sessions. Student-teacher aspirants will find this very useful in their future endeavors.

Grading Criteria:

- Attendance and ACTIVE classroom participation which includes, note taking, attentiveness and providing responsive and reflective answers. A Positive Attitude is a must! Over all preparedness for each session. Bring the art supplies you require to create your examples, or the reference texts that you will need to write your lesson plans. Again, refer to the 2007 Art Department-wide policy document handed out in class. Use this class time wisely and it will benefit you for the greater good! (15%)
- Four completed, standards driven, cross-curricular, arts integrated lesson plans with visual examples submitted on time. (15% each).
- Classroom presentation of one developed lesson. Time to be assigned. Test and quizzes (10%).
- Sketchbook, journal, creative writing response piece, and completed visual arts visitation with reflection paper (15%)
- Review Goals and Requirement section of syllabus for details.
