Fall 2009 Tuesday 6:30 pm MAIN COMEN 005

Professor Kearns

MarthaKearns@Msn.com

Availability: Best time for a conference is immediately before or after class. If this is inconvenient, a phone conference can be arranged.

Course Goals

Students will gain an aesthetic, cultural, and critical understanding of the fine arts of painting, sculpture, and architecture from the birth of art (circa 30,000 B.C.) to early Renaissance (1420 A.D.) in the western and non-western traditions. Students will gain an understanding of the religious and cultural values of each historical period and tradition as well as a cross-cultural understanding of the development of the fine arts. Students will also acquire use of the vocabulary of the fine arts to critically discuss and analyze works of art.

(This course meets LinC Requirement for M6/Liberal Education Guideline IIB.)

Required Texts for purchase

Laurie Schneider Adams, Art Across Time, Volume I: Prehistory to the Fourteenth Century, Third Edition, New York: McGraw Hill, 2007.

Course Requirements

1. Students must attend all classes and bring the required text to each class.
2. Students must complete two analyses, a midterm, an exhibition project, a final project, and a final exam.
3. Students must attend the New York City Field Trip as assigned.
4. Students must complete peer group sessions as assigned.

Evaluation

Grading: 40% of your grade is determined by written work; 50% by exams, the exhibition project and final project, and 10% by attendance.

Papers: there will be an Aesthetic Analysis required on two different topics. Criteria for these will be given beforehand.

Exams: There will be a Midterm and a Final Exam, identifying, comparing, and analyzing images from the text.

Exhibition Project: Each group will select an image and original text to be exhibited for a show at the HUB Gallery, opening November 23.
