

SYLLABUS SPAN 110

INTRODUCTORY SPANISH III

FALL 2009

Profesora: Zenaida D'Lima

Tel. (610) 861-1394

E-mail: zdlima@moravian.edu

Office: Comenius 412

Office hours: Wednesday 12:00 to 1:00 pm

Texts : Zayas-Bazán, Eduardo, Susan M. Bacon and Holly J. Nibert ¡Arriba! Comunicación y cultura, Volume 3, Custom Edition for Moravian College. MySpanishLab Access Kit and supplementary material (included in package).

Objectives of this course: The aim of the Spanish 100-105-110 program is to establish the basis of a life-long learning experience in the Spanish language, which will include the development of communicative skills and learning about the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world. The material of study is divided into three semesters and throughout the program, students develop language skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking in Spanish which allow them to handle simple real life situations and simple communicative tasks (such as ordering a meal, asking directions and making purchases). They should be able to ask and answer questions in simple sentences about themselves, their daily routine, and so forth, within meaningful, culturally authentic contexts. Students are expected to attain the "Intermediate Low" level of proficiency upon completion of this basic language program.

Material covered: Español 110 will focus on Lessons 11 - 15 of ¡Arriba! Comunicación y cultura. A review of previous chapters will be offered during the first week of class.

Preparation: In order to develop the goals of the course, students will study the material assigned by the professor, with all the readings and activities in ¡Arriba! Comunicación y cultura before coming to class. If a student misses class, it is his/her responsibility to find out the pages and complete activities assigned for the following class. Preparation for class includes writing, speaking, listening and reading. Writing should be done on a separate paper, not in the margins of your book. Write complete sentences whenever possible. The different kinds of assignments are to be handled as follows:

- ¡Así es la vida! Practice with a combination of lively conversations, drawings, photos, realia, and/or readings to set the stage for the communicative functions and culture to be presented more formally later.
- Vocabulary is presented and practiced in the ¡Así lo decimos! Section. You are expected to know and use the vocabulary in class. The vocabulary lists have been streamlined, with visuals added to provide context and motivate learning. Letras y sonidos section will help you with pronunciation.
- Grammatical topics are presented and practiced in the ¡Así lo hacemos! section. Grammatical explanations are clear and concise; many include helpful illustrations. Study tips will assist you with structures that non-native speakers of Spanish often find difficult, and some structures are elaborated a step further in Expansión boxes and ¿Cuánto sabes tú? Self-assessment boxes. At the end of each chapter, a new summary listing all active vocabulary serves as a quick reference.

- Comparaciones section (in the Primera parte only) presents information about the Spanish-speaking world as a whole. The En tu experiencia questions will invite you to reflect on your experiences of your own culture, while the En tu opinion activities will encourage you to discuss the topic in small groups.
- Observaciones (in the Segunda Parte) is a video-based section. This sitcom-like video, entitled ¡Pura vida!, features the interactions of five young adults who have all found their way to a residence in Costa Rica. The pre-viewing, viewing, and post viewing activities in the text are designed to help you follow the story that unfolds in each episode.
- Nuestro Mundo is the last part of each chapter and it is divided into four sections: Panorama (a visually and textually panoramic presentation of the targeted country or region of the Hispanic world. The material is supported by activities that will encourage you to discuss the regions and topics, do additional research on the Web, and make comparisons); Ritmos (a musical selection from the targeted country or region, together with pre-listening, listening and post-listening activities); Páginas (reading skills are the focus of this section. The readings include excerpts from magazines, newspaper articles, a fable, poems, short stories, and excerpts from novels and plays by contemporary Hispanic); and Taller (this section provides guided writing activities that incorporate the vocabulary, structures, and themes covered in the chapter).

IMPORTANT NOTE: This will be a demanding course. Expect to spend about two hours outside class for every session. The good news is that you have excellent resources and by doing the work conscientiously, you will be speaking Spanish competently at an elementary level in no time. You will be using MySpanishLab Online Resources. This is a new, nationally hosted online learning system created for students in college-level language courses. It includes a wide array of language-learning tools and resources: interactive version of the ¡Arriba! Student Activities Manual, an electronic version of the ¡Arriba! Student text, and all materials from the ¡Arriba! Audio and video programs, Readiness checks, chapter tests/practices and tutorials. Instructors can use this system to make assignments, post announcements, set grading parameters, listen to student-created audio recordings, e-mail students, collect and keep scores of graded exercises, assignments and tests, and provide feedback on student work. Students will need to use a Student Access Code to access MySpanishLab – Attention! New and returning students will receive instructions on how to register in MySpanishLab course. Your Section ID _____. Your progress report will be available on Blackboard. Please register on Blackboard and enroll in my class: Introductory Spanish III. Before coming to class, you are to prepare all assigned material. Writing should be done neatly and kept in a loose-leaf notebook.

All the class activities and presentations have to be done in Spanish

Class attendance: Faithful attendance is expected, since continuous practice is needed in order to learn a language. The learning of a language is a cumulative process, and it is not easy to make up for several missed classes.

Every student will be allowed to miss up to three (3) classes without losing points off their final grade (however, remember that your weekly class participation grade will suffer beginning with the first absence, regardless of the reason for it).

Every absence beyond three will result in a deduction of 1 point off the final grade. It is the responsibility of the student to reserve his/her 3 absences for those circumstances when missing class is unavoidable (i.e. illnesses, field trips, participation in sporting events, etc.) and to inform the professor as soon as possible about the reason for the absence.

In case of extended absences the student should talk to Student Services or the Academic Dean who will contact the professor. Only if the Dean justifies the absences, they will be excused (and points will not be taken off).

Remember: Requests to excuse absences at the end of the semester will not be considered. Students have the responsibility of keeping track of their own absences. No reminders will be given.

Four (4) late arrivals to class (10 minutes or more) will be the equivalent of one absence and students will lose 1 point off their final grade. Please, be respectful to other students and the professor, late arrivals are disrupting.

Don't forget to disconnect your cellular phone and/or pager before coming to class. Only in case of an emergency, the professor will allow students to use them.

Class participation: Students are expected to come to class having prepared ALL material assigned by the professor. In class, students must participate actively speaking in group activities and class discussions. Missing class lowers the participation grade.

Active Participation in class will be graded as follows:

A=95 Excellent participation (the student answers questions and offers interesting comments without the need of the professor or the debate leader calling on him/her. The comments and answers show that the student prepared, completed and understood the assignment.

B= 85 Good participation (the student answers questions and offers interesting comments whenever the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. Sometimes, the student participates without being asked. The comments and answers show that the student has prepared and understood the assignment.

C=75 Fair participation (the student answers questions and offers comments only when the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. The comments and answers show that the student has prepared or attempted to complete the assignment, but doesn't seem to understand it.

D=65 Poor participation (the student answers questions and offers very brief comments only when the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. The comments and answers show lack of interest and/or a poor preparation.

F=55 Lack of participation (the student does not answer questions and does not offer any comments in the class or group discussion. The lack of comments and answers as well as incorrect answers, show that the student has not completed the assignment or, if he/she has done it, it has been in a careless or incomplete way).

IMPORTANT NOTE: Spanish 110 students MUST attend our weekly Spanish Table or any related activities/events at least ONE TIME during the semester . Your attendance to these activities will be graded as part of your participation.

Tests/Pruebas: There will be a test after every chapter (11-15) and a final exam. The final exam will be comprehensive. Unauthorized absence from the tests or the final exam will result in a grade of zero for that test or exam. Make-ups will only be given if students inform the professor of the reason for the absence before the exam is given in class by calling (or having someone call) or sending an E-mail message. The make-up will be given at the professor's discretion.

Group Power Point Presentation: In groups of 3 or 4, students will prepare a Power Point presentation on topics related to the Hispanic world (comprehensive: politics, art, traditions, music, art, Hispanic cultures, etc.). To pick a specific topic, students MUST consult with the professor at least 1 week before presenting. All presentations MUST be in Spanish. Duration: 15 - 20 minutes, including a 3-5 minute discussion and/or a question-answer session about topics presented. Note: It is required to work as a team! Each team will be graded as a group.

Individual Power Point Presentation: At the end of the semester, students will prepare an individual Power Point presentation on topics related to the Hispanic world (more specific: a famous Hispanic person, a celebration, a personal experience, etc.). To pick a specific topic, students MUST consult with the professor at least 1 week before presenting. All presentations MUST be in Spanish. Duration: 5minutes. Note: Both presentations, group and individual, require serious research. Please use the resources provided by our library and/or interlibrary loan.

Homework: You must go to MySpanishLab to access your homework assignment (check Announcements daily). Your assignments can be completed online and scores will be collected by your instructor. Please pay attention to deadlines.

“Otras cosas”: You are encouraged to use every opportunity to hear and speak Spanish. Practice with each other outside class. Plan to spend 20 minutes or half an hour each day listening to Spanish radio or watching Spanish TV. You can also benefit from “chatting” rooms in Spanish or pen pal activities. Find a partner whose native language is Spanish and practice what you learn. Such activities will enhance your performance in class and help you get more out of the course.

Academic integrity: academic dishonesty, that is, cheating on tests and exams, and plagiarism (using another person's words and passing them off as your own) is a serious offense and will be handled according to the Moravian policy on Academic Honesty (please, see the Student Handbook). It is your responsibility to avoid dishonest behavior.

The course grade will be distributed as follows:

Class participation ----- 20%
Tests ----- 35%
Homework----- 15%
Group Power Point Pres.----- 10%
Individual Power Point Pres.----- 10%
Final exam ----- 10%
