Goal

Through Music 117, students will acquire knowledge of the origins, development, and stylistic features of U.S. music through listening, analysis, reading, writing, and discussion.

Textbook

America's Musical Landscapes, 6th edition (New York: McGraw Hill, 2010)
Jean Ferris

Requirements

Attendance and class participation will count for a good portion of the final grade. Students are advised to take notes during class.

Assignment Policy

Projects must be completed on time. All other assignments are considered on time if received in class or by 12:00 noon the day after. Email submissions are permitted. Assignments submitted within one day of the due date will receive a 5-point deduction. Assignments submitted within one week of the due date will receive a 15-point deduction and assignments submitted more than a week late will receive a zero. Reading assignments include listening to all related music.

Grading

Attendance and Class Participation	30%
Projects	25%
Assignments	25%
Tests	10%
Final Exam	10%

There will be strict adherence to the Academic Honesty Policy in accordance with the college handbook. Students who wish to request accommodations in this class for a disability should contact Mr. Joe Kempfer, Assistant Director of Learning Services for Disability Support, 1307 Main Street (extension 1510). Accommodations cannot be provided until authorization is received from the office of Learning Services.

It is within the instructor's purview to apply qualitative judgment in determining grades for an assignment or for the course.
