TEXT: DeLisi, Matt, and Peter J. Conis. American Corrections: Theory, Research, Policy, and Practice. Massachusetts: Jones and Bartlett Publishers, 2010.

(Supplemental readings to be announced throughout the semester)

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This class will explore the historical development of Corrections in America. It will examine the institutionalization of criminals as well as modern community-based approaches. The systematic approach to prison management and organization will also be reviewed. Through readings, lectures, and group discussions, students will explore the dynamics of incarceration, as well as the organizational aspects of the adult probation and parole systems.

COURSE GOALS:

- To gain an understanding of the historical approach to Corrections in America
- To review and discuss major sociological theories that deal specifically with corrections and punishment
- To identify the various approaches to supervision, treatment, and rehabilitation of the adult offender in America
- To gain empathy for those different than ourselves

GRADING:

Your final grade will be based on a total of 450 points, with this breakdown:

-Mid Term (100 points)=	100 points
-Class Participation (50 points)=	50 points
-Two quizzes (25 points each)=	50 points
-Two Journal Reviews (25 points each)=	50 points
-Writing/Oral Assignments (100 points total)=	100 points
-Final Exam (100 points)=	100 points
	450 points total

Tests and quizzes will be based on information gathered from required reading, lecture notes, and class videos. Due dates for Journal Reviews and Writing/Oral Assignments will be assigned as the semester progresses.

Course grades follow the letter-grade system. Please consult the Student Handbook for description of the requirements for attaining each grade. The numerical ranges used in assigning each letter grade in this course are as follows:

A	93-100%	C	73-76
A-	90-92	C -	70-72
B+	87-89	D+	67-69
B	83-86	D	63-66
B-	80-82	D-	60-62
C+	77-79	F	0-59

COURSE POLICIES:

ATTENDANCE:

While it is understood that there are circumstances that would prevent a student from attending class (illness, family emergency), regular attendance is fully expected. The student, in such a case, is expected to notify the instructor as soon as possible of the situation. Students should also check with the instructor regarding missed work or assignments. This is your responsibility!

Attendance will be reflected in your Class Participation grade. Therefore, students may not make up class activities that take place during classes for which they are absent.

MISSED TESTS, QUIZZES, AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS:

Every possible effort should be made to take exams and quizzes on the scheduled dates. Test and quiz dates will be announced with at least a ten day notice. Late papers will be accepted with a penalty (10% deduction) for each day that they are late (including weekends and holidays).

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Students should acquaint themselves with the college's policy on Academic Honesty in the current Student Handbook, specifically both sections entitled "Plagiarism" and "Cheating." Any student found to have not upheld the college's policy shall be dismissed from the course, and assigned a grade of F. Students are urged to see the instructor if they have any questions regarding this matter.

COURSE OUTLINE AND LECTURE TOPICS:

The instructor, with cooperation from the class, will make every effort to cover the topics listed below. The list, however, is subject to modification to best fit the needs of the class. Students will be given weekly reading assignments and should be ready at all times to discuss text chapters during class. Each student should expect to work at least five hours per week outside of class, not including study time for tests and quizzes.
