Catalog Description

An introduction to basic financial information used within business organizations. Emphasis is on cost analysis to improve decision making, and facilitate planning and control. Topics include cost systems, budgeting, variance analysis, performance measurement, pricing and profit analysis.

Course Objectives

This course is designed to introduce students to the variety of ways in which cost accounting information is used to support an organization's strategic objectives. After completing this course, students should understand:

- The nature of costs incurred by firms and the variety of ways by which organizations account for and manage these costs.
- The process of budgeting and evaluating the performance of firms and their business units.
- The use of cost information in a variety of decision making contexts.
- The rationale behind the balanced scorecard.
- The use of accounting information to motivate performance.

Required Materials

Lanen, Anderson, Maher (2011). Fundamentals of Cost Accounting 4th Edition. NY, NY: McGraw Hill.

Additional resources include:

- Text website -- www.mhhe.com/lanen3e
- Class notes, announcements, and other resources are available on the Acct 213 Blackboard site, which can be accessed at <http://blackboard.moravian.edu>

Blackboard Course Site

Many of the materials for this course can be accessed through Moravian's Blackboard course management system. Items included on the Blackboard site include instructor prepared materials such as electronic copy of the syllabus, PowerPoint slides, and selected solutions to problems.

Class communications including course updates, and other important announcements will be communicated in class and through Blackboard. Students should log in to the course Blackboard site at least weekly.

Attendance and Participation

Your attendance and participation are vital to the success of the course; therefore, active participation is welcomed and encouraged! Participation includes attending class, reading the assignments prior to attending class, completing homework assignments, and participating in class discussions. Many of the concepts covered in this course build upon concepts covered earlier in the course. For this reason, it is crucial that students keep up with the readings and assignments. Please ask questions and seek help as soon as possible to avoid falling behind.

I will take attendance at every class period; however, there is no specific grade for attendance. It is my experience that students who attend class are those who perform best in this course. I will consider your attendance and participation in the final assessment of grades for students who are one the borderline between grades. If a situation arises that would cause you to miss a class, please notify the instructor via email as soon as possible. It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements for any missed materials or assignments.

Examinations

All students are expected to take examinations when scheduled. It is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor of any conflicts BEFORE the scheduled exam date. In the case of a known conflict, a makeup exam will be scheduled in advance. If an emergency situation arises that results in a student missing an exam, it is at the instructor's discretion to determine if a makeup exam will be scheduled or a cumulative exam will be given at the next exam date. Please refer to the Schedule of Assignments on the last page of this syllabus for the exam dates.

Homework Assignments

Homework problems will be assigned throughout the semester. The specific homework problems will be announced in class. In order to receive full credit for homework, students must make an adequate effort at completing all of the problems. An adequate effort includes following your text and notes to satisfactorily set up the problems and making an attempt to answer all questions. Problems for which the instructor does not feel the student has made an adequate effort will not be given credit.

Homework will be reviewed and collected in class. Late homework will not be accepted for credit.

Case Assignments

Written analysis of two case studies will be required during the semester. The case studies use real world settings and deal with key topics in cost accounting including. The cases will be distributed in class.

The case will be evaluated based on the demonstration of critical thinking, accuracy of the solution, and clarity of the supporting documentation. The written analysis of the case must be handed in on the date that the case is due.

Grade Determination

The final grade for the course will be determined as follows:

Exams (3)	65%
Team Case assignments (2)	25%
Homework	10%
Total	100%

Extra Credit points –can be earned by attending Accounting Club events. Please watch your email for details of upcoming events.

Academic Honesty

“Academic integrity is the foundation on which learning at Moravian College is built. Moravian expects its students to perform their academic work honestly and fairly. In addition, a Moravian student should neither hinder nor unfairly assist the efforts of other students to complete their work successfully.” (Moravian College Student Handbook, Academic Honesty). Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to plagiarism, cheating, helping or hindering others, and false testimony. The College’s expectations and the consequences of the failure to meet those expectations are outlined in the Student Handbook.
