Course Description

This course is designed to improve your German language skills in the areas of reading, writing, listening and speaking at the intermediate level. It is supposed to help you with the transition to more advanced coursework. Throughout this semester you will also increase your knowledge of literature, film, history and the diversity of culture in German-speaking countries. Grammar concepts will be reviewed as well and we are going to have an online “Tandem” exchange via Skype with German students at the University of Greifswald.

Course Objectives

The primary emphasis is on increasing your reading/listening knowledge, expanding your vocabulary, and improving your writing skills. In addition, we will use the textbook Kaleidoskop and other resources such as videos, Internet links, and music. Through watching films, reading selected texts, using relevant Internet resources, and participating in class discussions, you will become more familiar with modern German culture, and apply this in writing assignments and strategies of argumentation. The Tandem program will familiarize you with every-day conversations in German with native speakers.

Class Materials

Kaleidoskop. Kultur, Literatur und Grammatik, 8th Edition, Boston and New York: Houghton Mifflin, 2012.

Films

Das Versprechen

Im Juli

Die fetten Jahre sind vorbei

Additional materials will be provided by the instructor.

Requirements and Grading

- 2 essays, 2 drafts each (2-3 pages, double-spaced) (30%)
- 1 final essay (3 pages, double-spaced) (20%)
- Oral Exam at the end of the semester (10%)

- Active participation in class discussion. Unexcused absences will result in a lowering of your semester grade. Please notify me ahead of time if you know that you have to miss class. (20%)
- Tandem Project: You will have Skype conversations with students in Germany in German and English. (10%)
- Written Assignments: Short response papers and grammar exercises. If you miss class (which you are highly discouraged from doing), it is your responsibility to obtain a copy of the homework assignment from the instructor, or from a classmate. (10%)
