COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will learn the basic strokes using games based instruction, the standard method of instruction and group instruction. Each of the strokes (backhand; forehand; serve; volley; overhead) will be taught in a group lesson with students have an opportunity to practice the strokes and to be evaluated. Upon the completion of the instruction, the students will learn the basics of singles play and doubles play and have the opportunity for competition. Intermediate students will be grouped together with each other for instruction and play. Depending of experience and prior course work, intermediate students may have an individualized program of instruction.

COURSE REQUIRMENTS

1. Attendance
2. Active Participation
3. Cooperation with classmates and instructors
4. All absences must be excused and will be dealt with on an individual basis.
5. If all requirements are met the student will pass the course.
