COURSE CODE For MySpanishLab: CRSKL24-4002207

Objectives: The aim of the Spanish 100-105-110 program is to establish the basis of a life-long learning experience in the Spanish language, which will include the development of communicative skills and learning about the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world. The material of study is divided into three semesters and throughout the program, students develop language skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking in Spanish which allow them to handle simple real life situations and simple communicative tasks (such as ordering a meal, asking directions and making purchases). They should be able to ask and answer questions in simple sentences about themselves, their daily routine, and so forth, within meaningful, culturally authentic contexts. Students are expected to attain the "Intermediate Low" level of proficiency upon completion of this basic language program.

Español 105 will focus on Lessons 6-10 of ¡Arriba! Comunicación y cultura. Students will be able to communicate about aspects of daily life in home, school, and community in conversation and in writing in the present and past tenses. Students will be able to understand and use the subjunctive mood in certain noun clauses. Students will develop a general understanding of geography and cultural realities in the Spanish-speaking world, with particular focus on Chile, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Peru, Ecuador, Venezuela, Colombia, Bolivia and Paraguay.

Asistencia (Attendance). Each absence beyond the third will result in one point taken off your final grade. Save these three absences for illness, emergency, participation in sports events, etc.

Excused absences and make-up work. If an absence is excused, you may make up written work or quizzes missed. To have an absence excused, you MUST NOTIFY ME BY VOICE MAIL OR EMAIL BEFORE the class of the reason for the absence. The work must be made up by the next class meeting unless you make other arrangements with me.

Nota de clase (Class grade). You will receive a class grade every day. If you arrive on time and are prepared, the grade will be 100%. If you are late, you lose 25%. If you are not prepared, you lose 50%.

What is MySpanishLab? It is a website with a wealth of resources for you at www.myspanishlab.com. MySpanishLab contains many activities assigned as homework, but in addition it has other useful resources: Your entire textbook is there in electronic form. There are tutorials in English and Spanish grammar. There are vocabulary flashcards and PowerPoint presentations of the grammar lessons. There is a glossary. There are audio and video materials, including cultural lessons in video. This syllabus and other useful documents are also available online at MySpanishLab. You will not have time to use everything that is there but I hope you will at least become familiar with what is available so you can use what will most help you or what most interests you. To access MySpanishLab, you must have the code you purchased with your textbook at the bookstore. (If you created an account last semester you do not need a new one.) After you use that code to create your MSL account, you will need the section or course code, which is on the first page of this syllabus.

Preparation. You have received a calendar with a list of activities in the textbook and in MSL that you must complete before each class. What is your goal as you prepare for class? It should NOT be “to get the homework done”. It should be to master the material, whether learning vocabulary, learning verb forms, or understanding concepts. The assignments in your book and in MySpanishLab are tools to that end. The assignments are NOT the end.

Before you begin any activity, know what it’s for and what you should get from it. Will it help you learn vocabulary? Will it allow you to practice a grammar application? Will it let you practice your reading skills? If it is a reading or writing activity, is it focused on some particular vocabulary or grammar concept? Ask yourself these questions before beginning any activity.

FORMAT FOR WRITTEN WORK

I will accept ONLY written work that follows these formats:

Handwritten:

- Use smooth-edged paper (no spiral notebook tear-outs)
- Write the due date of the assignment at the top of the paper.
- Clearly label each activity.
- Write QUESTIONS AND answers. This includes writing the questions in audio activities. Answer in complete sentences unless otherwise directed.
- Write NEATLY on every other line.
- Write NEATLY on every other line.
- Did I mention, “Write NEATLY on every other line”?
- This applies to written activities from MSL and from the textbook.

Typed:

- Use 16 pt Times New Roman or Arial.
- Write the due date of the assignment at the top of the paper.
- Double or triple space. (I prefer triple, but if there are several activities and this will cause you to use a lot of paper, double is all right.)
- Clearly label each activity.
- Write QUESTIONS AND answers. This includes writing the questions in audio activities. Answer in complete sentences unless otherwise directed.
- This applies to written activities from MSL and from the textbook.

Quizzes (Pruebas): There will be a vocabulary quiz part way through each chapter and an end-of-chapter quiz focusing on grammar and culture after every chapter except Chapter 10. For the vocabulary quizzes you will need to know the words and expressions from English to Spanish.

Academic Honesty. Please refer to the Academic Honesty Policy section in the Student Handbook. In addition, be advised that improper use of the dictionary or use of online translating services for written assignments will result in a grade of zero. Proper use of your dictionary is 1) looking up words in the Spanish-English part from reading assignments and 2) looking up words in the English-Spanish part that you have learned but don't remember. Your written work should never include any vocabulary or grammar that has not been covered to date. Such work will be rejected.

Because written homework is graded, you must do it independently. Copying homework or allowing yours to be copied is a violation of the Academic Honesty Policy, and will be reported to the Dean.

Examen final: The final exam is cumulative. The final exam for 105 B will be Tuesday, April 30, at 1:30 p.m.

Classroom expectations. Students are expected to show respect for all present and for the educational endeavor by:

- arriving on time.
- not eating during class.
- turning off phones, etc., and putting them away.
- not wearing hats that prevent eye contact.
- refraining from private conversations during class.
- remaining in the classroom for the entire class period.
