Catalog Description

An introduction to the practice and profession of auditing. Major topics include audit responsibilities and audit objectives, audit planning, evidence accumulation, materiality and risk, internal control, audit reports, professional ethics, and legal liability

Course Objectives

The objective of this course are to develop the student's understanding of auditing theory, concepts, and standards, and] to develop an appreciation for the auditor's professional role and the environment in which the auditor operates.

By the end of this course students should be able to:

- Identify the documents, journals, ledgers, and financial records of a company and how these documents are used to audit the financial statements for a company.
- Recognize and relate management assertions and audit objectives for financial statements
- Test transactions and balances
- Evaluate audit evidence and determine the appropriate auditing reports on financial statements and internal controls
- Perform the basic steps necessary to plan and complete a financial statement audit
- Understand the basics of the legal and regulatory environment affecting audits

Preparation, Attendance, and Participation

Preparation -- This course is different from other accounting course you have taken because of its conceptual nature. It requires a thorough understanding of generally accepted accounting principles and financial statements that you have learned in Intermediate Accounting. These concepts are the foundation of learning to apply the concepts of the auditing framework. There is little discussion of debits and credits, nor are there many problems to work. The course will take a lot of time and effort, both inside and outside the classroom. You are expected to attend each class and to complete all assigned work in a timely manner. An essential component to your successful completion of this class is to keep up with the material. Do not let yourself fall behind!

As you study the text material for Acct 324 please note that you must understand the concepts of each chapter and be able to apply them. A suggested approach for each chapter in this course follows:

Before the chapter is discussed in class:

- Review the chapter's learning objectives (in the front of each chapter).
- Read/review the chapter to become aware of the key concepts, content and organization.
- Attempt to answer the "Review Checkpoints" as you read the chapter.
- Study the chapter's examples and illustrations; note that you must understand both the concepts and the applications.
- Note any questions that you have on the chapter's material and bring them up in class.

After the chapter is discussed in class:

- Re-read the chapter, comparing your notes from the class session(s) to the chapter material
- Complete the multiple-choice questions at the end of the chapter.
- Practice applying the concepts presented in each chapter, by working questions, exercises, and problems assigned from each chapter for homework.
- Discuss with me any difficulties that you are still having with the chapter material.

Attendance will count toward your final grade. I will take attendance at the beginning of each class period. I understand that students will on occasion have to miss class for a variety of reasons; therefore, you can miss up to two class periods with no impact on your grade. Please note that classes missed due to other commitments such as doctor appointments, interviews, athletics, etc. are included in the two missed class periods. If a situation arises that would cause you to miss several class periods such as an extended illness, please notify the instructor via email as soon as possible so that we can appropriately plan for the absence. It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements for any missed materials or assignments.

Participation includes coming to class on time, engaging in class discussion and problem solving and asking thoughtful questions. Homework will be assigned throughout the course and will be part of your participation and preparation grade. Please upload your homework into Blackboard and bring a printed copy of your homework to class on the due date so that you are able to fully participate in the class discussion. Solutions to the homework will be posted on Blackboard.

 In order to promote a positive learning environment, please be considerate of your classmates. You should take care of your personal business (phone calls, text messages, bathroom breaks, etc.) before coming to class.

Blackboard Course Site

Many of the materials for this course can be accessed through Moravian's Blackboard course management system. Items included on the Blackboard site include instructor prepared materials such as electronic copy of the syllabus, and class notes.

Class communications including course updates, email messages, and other important announcements will be communicated in class and through Blackboard. Students should log in to the course Blackboard site at least weekly.

Examinations

All students are expected to take examinations when scheduled. If a student knows of a conflict, it is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor in writing via email. The student and instructor will find a time to reschedule the exam BEFORE the scheduled exam date. If extraordinary circumstances arise that prevent you from taking an exam at the scheduled time, either a rescheduled exam during a mutually determined time OR a cumulative exam will be given at the next scheduled exam date, at the instructor's discretion. Please refer to the Schedule of Assignments on the last page of this syllabus for the exam dates.

Apollo Shoes Case

Students will work in teams to complete an audit of a company. The case materials can be found on the text website. Additional details will be provided in class.

Quizzes

Several short quizzes will be scheduled throughout the semester. The quizzes are designed to test you on your understanding of basic concepts covered in the course. You can drop your two lowest quiz grades.

Grade Determination

The final grade for the course will be determined as follows:

Exams (3)	60%
Apollo Shoes Case	20%
Quizzes	10%
Attendance, Participation, and Preparation	10%
	100%

Extra Credit points – Extra credit assignments are available for students to add up to 3% to the final course grade. Assignments will be detailed in Blackboard.

Grading Scale:

A = 94% and above	B- = 80% to 83%	D+ = 67% to 69%
A- = 90% to 93%	C+ = 77% to 79%	D = 64% to 66%

Academic Honesty

“Academic integrity is the foundation on which learning at Moravian College is built. Moravian expects its students to perform their academic work honestly and fairly. In addition, a Moravian student should neither hinder nor unfairly assist the efforts of other students to complete their work successfully.” (Moravian College Student Handbook, Academic Honesty). Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to plagiarism, cheating, helping or hindering others, and false testimony. The College’s expectations and the consequences of the failure to meet those expectations are outlined in the Student Handbook.
