Course Description & Objectives:

The Center for Leadership and Service has developed a fall course follow-up for students that participated in the LeaderShape™ Institute in the summer of 2014. Several activities will support this .25 credit hour course.

The course supports the learning objectives introduced at the LeaderShape™ Institute. Specifically, students that successfully complete the course will gain the following at the end of the course.

- Exposure to and understanding of literature on leadership
- Reaffirm your Breakthrough Blueprint, including a vision for the future you hope to create.
- Develop a deeper understanding of core values and their application in diverse settings.

Textbooks:

- The LeaderShape Institute Participant Manual, 2014; Champaign, IL. LeaderShape™ (This is the workbook you received at the Institute in May 2014.)
- Exploring Leadership: For College Students Who Want To Make A Difference, 2nd Edition; Susan R. Komives, Nance Lucas, Timothy R. McMahon, 2007. John Wiley & Sons.

Academic Honesty Policy:

Course Requirements/Grading:

Students in this course will be given a P (pass) or F (fail) grade based on participation during course meetings, attendance at course events, and completion of assigned work outside of class.

Receiving a grade of Pass (P) means you have completed all of the requirements for the course.

Accommodations

Students who wish to request accommodations in this class for a disability should contact Elaine Mara, assistant director for academic and disability support at Monocacy Hall or by calling 610-861-1401. Accommodations cannot be provided until authorization is received from the Academic Support Center.
