Goal

Artists as Activists is a course designed to explore the impact that the arts have on social activism. Students will examine, research, and evaluate visual, performing, and literary works of art. The history of arts activism will also be studied with an emphasis on the importance and responsibilities of artists. Students will experience selected artwork as critics, interpreters, and become involved in the artistic process.

Textbook

Interpreting Art: Reflecting, Wondering, and Responding (McGraw Hill, 2003) by Terry Barrett, ISBN: 978-0-7674-1648-1

Requirements

Attendance and promptness are mandatory since class participation will count as a portion of the final grade. Reading assignments must be completed on time for class discussion. Students are advised to take notes during class.

Assignment Policy

Projects must be completed on time. All other assignments are considered on time if received in class or by 12:00 noon the day after class. Email submissions are preferred. Assignments submitted within one day of the due date will receive a 5-point deduction. Assignments submitted within one week of the due date will receive a 15-point deduction and assignments submitted more than a week late will receive a zero. All reading assignments must be completed on time and participation in the class discussions on these topics will be a factor in determining class participation grades.

Grading

Attendance and Class Participation	20%
Reaction Papers	40%
Projects (2)	30%
Reviews, Assignments	10%

There will be strict adherence to the Academic Honesty Policy in accordance with the college handbook. Students who wish to request accommodations in this class for a disability should contact Ms. Elaine Mara, Assistant Director of Academic & Disability Support, located on the first floor of Monocacy Hall (extension 1401). Accommodations cannot be provided until authorization is received from the Academic & Disability Support office.

The student work in this course is in full compliance with the federal definition of a one credit hour course.

It is within the instructor's purview to apply qualitative judgment in determining grades for an assignment or for the course.
