Course Description and Objectives

This course is designed to improve your German language skills in the areas of reading, writing, listening and speaking at the intermediate level. It is supposed to help you with the transition to more advanced coursework. Throughout this semester you will increase your knowledge of history and the diversity of culture in German-speaking countries. The emphasis of this class is on conversation. At the end of the semester you should be able to:

- Describe and narrate in major time frames (present, past, future, subjunctive)
- Participate actively in conversations on concrete topics in both formal and informal settings
- Be able to express opinions and talk about yourself and others
- Be able to read, understand and discuss news articles, essays and short stories
- Give a formal oral presentation in German

We are going to use the textbook Anders gedacht and other resources such as videos, Internet links, and music. Through watching videos, reading selected texts, using relevant Internet resources, and participating in class discussions, you will become more familiar with modern German culture, and apply this in brief writing assignments and strategies of argumentation. Grammar concepts will be reviewed as well.

Class Materials

Anders gedacht: Motyl-Mudretzky/Späinghaus. Text and Context in the German-Speaking World, Boston: Houghton Mifflin

Additional materials will be provided by the instructor.

Requirements and Grading

- Active participation in class discussion. Unexcused absences will result in a lowering of your semester grade. Please notify me ahead of time if you know that you have to miss class. (20%)
- Assignments: Homework assignments. If you miss class (which you are highly discouraged from doing), it is your responsibility to obtain a copy of the homework assignment from the instructor, or from a classmate. (20%)
- Midterm and Final Oral Exam. The instructor will suggest topics, however, you are highly encouraged to choose a course-relevant topic of your own that reflects your interests. (15+15%)
- Quizzes and Essay at the end of the semester. (30%)
