Text: Civil Rights and Liberties, Third Edition; John C. Domino

Course Description: Civil Liberties of Americans are delineated in the Bill of Rights. This course will examine issues of Freedom of Speech, Assembly & the Press; Freedom of Religion; right to counsel, right against self incrimination, right to be free from warrantless searches and seizures; right to a fair trial, right to privacy and equal protection. We will also explore the power and role of both the Congress and the Judiciary with respect to enforcing, upholding and defining civil liberties.

Course Requirements:

(1) There will be two quizzes, one midterm paper and one final examination. The dates of these quizzes, papers, and exams are listed in the class schedule. The college will determine the date of the final examination. The final examination will be cumulative.

(2) Each student will be required to find a current event in the newspapers, Internet or other written media, which pertains to a civil liberty. The student will be required to hand in a copy of the article along with a brief written analysis of the article. Each student will also be required to present the article to the class. This assignment will be graded.

Academic Honesty:

Moravian college's honesty policy has been established by the academic standards committee and is found in the student handbook. You are required to follow this policy.

Learning Disability Accommodations:

Students who wish to request accommodations in this class for a disability should contact Ms. Elaine Mara, Assistant Director of Academic & Disability Support, located on the first floor of Monocacy Hall (extension 1401). Accommodations cannot be provided until authorization is received from the Academic & Disability Support office.

Attendance:

Any student who misses more than three (3) classes will automatically drop 2/3 of a letter grade. Any student who misses six (6) or more class will automatically receive an F in the class
