COURSE DESCRIPTION

Spanish 110 is the last in a three-semester language sequence intended to help students achieve an intermediate low level of proficiency in the target language. It will cover chapters 11-16 of ¡Viva! Students will develop reading, writing, speaking, listening and comprehension skills, as well as broadening their cultural understanding of the Spanish-speaking world. The material of study is divided into three semesters (Spanish 100, 105 and 110). Time Commitment

Students are expected to dedicate at least two hours of work outside of class per hour of class, for a minimum total of 7 hrs./wk. You may need to spend more time than that to adequately prepare for class and complete assignments.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Faithful attendance is expected, since continuous practice is needed in order to learn a language. The learning of a language is a cumulative process, and it is not easy to make up for several missed classes.

Attendance:

- Just like playing an instrument or practicing a sport, language learning occurs best through active participation. Being present is the first step.

- You need to come to class and be on time. 0-3 absences will not be penalized, but may affect class performance. If you will miss class for a religious holiday, please let me know ahead of time so we can make arrangements for missed work.
- Every absence over three (3), for any reason, will result in a lowering of the final grade by one point for every additional absence. Exceptions may be granted only in extraordinary circumstances such as prolonged illness or family emergency; these situations may require additional documentation and are not automatically guaranteed. Travel plans are not considered extraordinary circumstances. The student would need to make arrangements to complete missed work.
- "The Academic and Disability Support Office is authorized to send e-mails informing instructors that students have valid excuses for not attending two or more consecutive days of class. You may contact them by calling 610-861-1401 or sending an email to disabilitysupport@moravian.edu. Only if the Academic & Disability Support Office justifies extended absences, will they be excused."
- Arriving late (10 mins. or more) to class more than three times will equal one absence. Students who arrive 30 minutes late to an exam will not be given the opportunity to take the exam.
- It is the student's responsibility to complete assignments for missing classes. "I didn't do the homework because I was not in class" it's not an acceptable excuse! Please contact your instructor and/or a classmate to bring you up to speed.
- Students have the responsibility of keeping track of their own absences. No reminders will be given!
- Don't forget to turn off your cellular phone before coming to class. If you insist in using your cellular (talking, texting, etc.) you will be asked to leave the classroom. This will result in an absence and a grade of 0 (zero) for that day.

COURSE EVALUATION

Exams

There will be a test after every chapter. All chapter tests will be cumulative. Tests will include all or some of the following sections: vocabulary, contextualized grammar, listening, reading and comprehension, short answer/short essay questions, dialogues/short interviews, and cultural topics.

Mid-Term

All students must give a group oral presentation in class. Topics must be related to the Hispanic world. Students will have to work in groups of 4-5 students. Together they will select a topic and notify their instructor at least two weeks before presenting in class. All members of a group must participate in the research part of the project and be ready to present their topic in class the date assigned. NOTE: You must work as a team! One evaluation per group and one grade for all the members of the group. The presentation will be graded as follows: content/information, organization, vocabulary, grammar and mechanics, pronunciation and fluency, completion of task, team work, and ability to motivate classmates to participate during question/answer sessions. REMEMBER! At the end of each presentation, group members must test their classmates by asking them to answer at least 5 analytical questions about their topic.

At the end of the presentations, groups must turn in neatly typed the questions and answers prepared for class discussion, an outline for the presentation, and a list of works consulted and cited during the research (when preparing your “works cited” page, please use the Modern Language Writing Style (MLA Style): <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>)
Duration of presentations: 10-12 minutes, including the session of questions and answers.
Instructions, guidelines, and grading criteria will be provided by instructor in advance. Power Point or any other software presentation programs are highly recommended. If your group decides to use a software presentation program or any other presentation graphics package, please save your presentation on a flash drive – it will save us a lot of time.

Compositions or Writing Assignments

Students will write 3 short papers. Topics, guidelines, and instructions are on the ¡VIVA! Supersite Plus Content – Activities - Grammar – Ampliación – Escribir section. The first draft will be written in class and revised by a writing workshop partner. Feedback will be provided by instructor. All final versions must be typed, double-spaced (min. 1-2 page long). Follow format for written work below. See Course calendar for due dates. Please do not send it via e-mail. Be aware that content, vocabulary, grammar, mechanics, organization and completeness of task will be graded. Rubric will be provided by your instructor in advance.

Homework

You must go to ¡VIVA! Supersite Plus to access your online homework assignment and view/read important instructions and announcements. A lot of your homework assignments must be completed online and scores will be collected by your instructor. Some online activities will be computer-graded and others will be instructor-graded. Instructor will also assign homework from textbook (readings, exercises, practices, etc.). Please check your Supersite Calendar and your paper Course Calendar. Read instructions carefully and pay attention to deadlines.

FORMAT FOR WRITTEN WORK

I will not accept work that does not follow these formats. This format applies to graded and non-graded writing assignments (example: typed compositions, written homework assignments, and any other in-class writing activity).

Handwritten:

- Use smooth-edged paper (no spiral notebook tear-outs)
- Write NEATLY on every other line.
- Write QUESTIONS and answers. Answer in complete sentences unless otherwise directed.
- Clearly label each activity.

Typed:

- Use 12 pt. Times New Roman or Arial.
- Use double space.
- Write QUESTIONS and answers. Answer in complete sentences unless otherwise directed.
- Clearly label each activity.

Final Oral Exam

The final will be an individual oral presentation on Hispanic/Latino culture or Hispanic/Latino issues in the USA (example: politics, economy, literature, film, art, culture, education and other social issues). When selecting topics, students must consult with instructor at least two weeks before the day of their presentation. All students must research and present their selected topics in class. The day of the presentations, all students must submit an outline of their presentation and a list of works cited/works consulted. The outline and list must be typed, double-spaced and they must follow the MLA style and format:

<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>. Topics for the group oral presentation (Mid-Term) and topics for the individual oral presentation (Final oral exam) must be different. Duration: 5 minutes (including a session for questions/answers and active discussion). Each student must prepare at least 5 analytical questions for in-class discussion.

NOTE: Instructor will provide guidelines and grading criteria at least three weeks before presentations are due (see course calendar for dates). Be aware that content/information, grammar, mechanics, pronunciation/fluency, organization, completeness of task, and ability to motivate classmates will be considered when grading this assignment. Power Point or any other presentation software is recommended. Please do not e-mail power point presentations, outlines and list of works cited. Save power point on a flash drive. It will save us a lot of time.

Final Written Exam

Students can write a research paper on the same topic of final individual oral presentation or a different topic (as long as it is related to the Hispanic world). This paper should be an in-depth analysis of the selected topic. Requirements: min. 2 pages, typed and double-spaced. MLA format is a must: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>

Note: You will be offered a final written exam exemption if: a) your individual oral presentation shows serious research/an in-depth study of the topic, b) your overall grade before the final exams (oral and written) is 93% or higher.

Participation

Active participation in class is crucial for increasing conversational competence in Spanish. Students are expected to arrive prepared to participate in all class activities by having studied the topics to be covered and having completed all assigned homework. Simply being present and taking notes does not constitute active participation.

Active participation involves speaking and collaborating in paired and group activities, in-class writing assignments, short oral presentations, doing on-line preparatory work, and volunteering answers in class discussions. A positive attitude is also expected and it makes a difference in your participation.

Participation should be in Spanish, even when speaking with another student. Chatting in English may be considered “negative participation” and will result in a very low participation grade. Speaking in Spanish, even when you make mistakes, get frustrated, or have trouble communicating, helps your brain learn how to learn Spanish. It’s like a sport or playing an instrument—practice is key. The class participation grades will be assigned as follows:

A= 95 or higher - Excellent participation (the student answers questions and offers interesting comments without the need of the professor or the debate leader calling on him/her. The comments and answers show that the student has thoroughly prepared the reading and has done the necessary background research to understand the reading).

B= 85 - Good participation (the student answers questions and offers interesting comments whenever the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. Sometimes, the student participates without being asked. The comments and answers show that the student has prepared the reading and has done the necessary background research to understand the reading quite well).

C= 75 - Fair participation (the student answers questions and offers comments only when the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. The comments and answers show that the student has prepared the reading, but has not done much necessary background research to understand the reading).

D= 65 - Poor participation (the student answers questions and offers very brief comments only when the professor or debate leader calls on him/her. The comments and answers show that the student has a poor preparation of the reading and has not done the necessary background research to understand it).

F= 55 - Lack of participation (the student does not answer questions and does not offer any comments in the class or group discussion. The lack of comments and answers, as well as incorrect answers, show that the student has not done the reading or, if he/she has done it, it has been in a careless or incomplete way).

No attendance, no participation at all (when a student is not in class, he/she gets a 0 for that day regardless of the reason for that absence).

Extra credit (to be added to total grade at the end of the semester): Students will have the opportunity to earn up to 5 points by participating in events approved by instructor. These extra credit events or activities will be announced in class. In order to receive credit, students must actively participate in some of the following events/activities:

The Spanish Club

I highly recommend that you attend the activities organized by the Spanish Club such as weekly meetings, movie screenings, restaurant visits and cultural trips. They are an excellent way to get involved in the language and the culture of the Spanish-speaking world.

Babel

Interested in poetry? I encourage you to write a poem, a story or an essay in Spanish for Babel, the literary journal of the Department of Foreign Languages. For more information feel free to talk to me or send an email to Dr. Claudia Mesa at: mesac@moravian.edu

Hispanic Heritage Month Events (HHM) – please see program on the last page of this syllabus.

POLICY ON LATE ASSIGNMENTS

As a general rule for this class late assignments will be penalized and make-up exams or other work will be given only in extremely unusual circumstances. If accepted, all late work (including online homework) will lose 5% per day, starting the due date at the time of class.

Note: Students are responsible for keeping track of their own progress. They can check their progress by accessing the Supersite Plus Gradebook. Grades are not curved!

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic dishonesty is a serious offense and will not be tolerated. Cases of academic dishonesty will be handled according to the Moravian policy on Academic Honesty. If you cheat you will be given a grade of zero for that assignment or a failing grade in the course. You will also be reported to the Dean of Students and “a copy of the record [will remain] in the Division of Student Affairs until the student completes the degree or certification program.” Also, please note that, “When writing creative or research papers in a foreign language, students may not use electronic translation services. Utilizing such tools without express permission of the instructor constitutes plagiarism (using another person’s words and passing them off as your own). The use of electronic dictionaries for single-word inquiries or short idiomatic expressions is permissible at the discretion of professors in the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures.”

For detailed information please see the Student Handbook:

DISABILITY STATEMENT

“Students who wish to request accommodations in this class for a disability must contact Ms. Elaine Mara, Assistant Director of Academic and Disability Support, located on the first floor of Monocacy Hall, extension 1401. Accommodations cannot be provided until authorization is received from the Academic and Disability Office.”

CLASSROOM CIVILITY

Each Moravian student is encouraged to help create an environment that promotes learning, dignity, and mutual respect for everyone. Just a reminder that normal courtesies are practiced in the classroom!

Classroom expectations. Students are expected to show respect for all present by

- arriving on time.
- not eating in class.
- turning off cell phones.
- not wearing hats that prevent eye contact.
- refraining from private conversations during class.

- taking care of bathroom needs before class so as not to disrupt class with coming and going.
